Do you read a Modern Newspaper?

Yes, I read the Boston Record American!

I like the list of best selling books every Friday. I read Elliot Norton; he's intellectually honest. The writings of John Chamberlain, the noted authority, command executive respect. And the articulate commentary of Henry J. Taylor, a former U. S. Ambassador, gives distinctive polish to Record American pages.

Investor's Guide, Mirror of Your Mind and Becker's Contract Bridge are part of the balanced team that gives me insights on news and views . . . the range and depth I need to advance my own career.

The Crossword Puzzle, TV Key Previews, Arnold Palmer's Golf, Gillooly's sports column and Arthur Sullivan's Sports Afield help me select and enjoy the special kind of friends and recreation that appeal to my personal tastes, . . . and I like that handy, compact size.

The unique and distinguished Boston "Financial Cabinet" is about to convene

By "Financial Cabinet" we mean Boston Safe Deposit and Trust Company's unique team of specialists in estate planning and administration, in investment research and management, in trusteeship and banking which is literally at your command.

Part of the team is about to meet here to review basic investment policy. Their diversified talents and knowledge are concentrated for the benefit of our customers. Ours is a highly personalized service based on the individual circumstances, needs and objectives of each customer.

Boston Trust is truly unique among banks. Our primary business is the management of money and property. As one of the oldest and largest such organizations in New England, we serve individuals, institutions, families and corporations. For details on how our "Financial Cabinet" might serve you, write Dept. II-7, or phone Area Code 617 LIberty 2-9450.©
